SCHOOL NOTES

Out of the bustle and confusion incident to the preparation for Commencement, class parties, etc., we gathered that—

There were men out from the main office in Los Angeles making an inventory of the buildings and equipment, something to do with a new system of insurance.

The seniors and faculty have received cards for the Commencement exercises at the Van Nuys High school. Miss Nellie Teresa Gibson, sister of Mrs. R. M. Jones and a former student of Lomita High is a member of the class of '24 at Van Nuys.

Cards were also received from Nell Blaine, who graduates from the Poly High in Los Angeles. The Commencement exercises will be held Thursday evening, June 26, in the Philharmonic auditorium.

YOU ASK: "WHERE CAN I GET A Decent SHOE REPAIRING JOB?"

Dear Recipient:

Wouldn't you consider it a wise resolve on your part to make every pair of old shoes you may possess serve you just as long as they may be made to serve? Why not make every pair of shoes pay you value in full—and interest?

This does not mean that you must wear shabby-appearing, run-down, patched, cobbled and unsightly shoes. No, most decidedly, no. There is just one matter that may worry you some. You ask—and almost despairingly—"Where can I get a decent shoe-repairing job done?" And no wonder you ask that question. We are aware that some so-called shoe repair shops turn out, in many cases, poor and unprofessional work—work that will never satisfy the discriminating, the particular, the well-bred person.

But, let us tell you truly—"You Need Worry No Longer on That Score." Cast aside all your shoe doubts and troubles. Our address is at the foot of this letter and this is the place where you will find expert workmen and modern shoe repairing machinery—the kind of combination you must have if you desire your shoe repairing properly cared for. Here your shoe wants will receive prompt and careful attention. Here is the shop where every shoe repair job must give perfect satisfaction in every way.

This does not mean that we alone must be satisfied, but that you, too, as one of our valued customers, must be entirely pleased with the work. You are the one to decide whether or not the job has been done properly and to your complete satisfaction. We feel proud in stating—"We have no disappointed customers," and the statement is absolutely true.

Let us have your old shoes now. We'll put new life and extra wear in them.

Yours for good repairing,
